

BookWhirl.com

Acceptance in the Midst of Misery

Newnan, GA (February 25,2010) – In a book full of compassion, faith, and conviction, The Bridge: Between Cell Block A and a Miracle is: Psalm 91, author Jackie Carpenter reveals an unforgettable account of her son Richard Jason Veitch's murder case. Covering legal issues, this book offers a powerful tool to give help to the helpless, hope to the hopeless, rest to the restless, and life to the lifeless.

The Bridge takes everyone on a closer look on Carpenter's struggle in the midst of depression, helplessness, and all odds. It also speaks of her strong faith that ultimately brought her to a place of success. "...God is the only One that can deliver your "Miracle" when everything possible is stacked against you," the author says.

The Bridge tells every individual to strengthen one's faith, hope and love. This inspiring book encourages every person to see the positive side of life and to accept God's liberation. Let this heartwarming book be the guide in the daily battles of life.

This book is now available online. It can be purchased at any of these online bookstores: www.Amazon.com or www.xulonpress.com.

About the Author

Jackie Carpenter currently resides in Newnan, Georgia.