There's No Such Thing as a Free Meal. Get Fed Online For Free.

There is a famous saying that has been around for years now, and that saying is "The best things in life are free." Especially with the economy being in the worst position that it has been in a while, more people are becoming concerned about money, while looking for ideas to gain more income. Well handouts can come in many forms, especially when you are surfing online. Drop Ship Forums recently revived their discussion forum including new categories and content. "The Awoken Beast," that we call our drop ship discussion forum is looking for handouts of it's own. Please stop by and feed the animals.

I thought we weren't supposed to feed the animals.

You can feed Drop Ship Forums (The Awoken Beast) your fresh handouts. The Beast isn't a picky eater either, but it does have a special diet. We have discovered that The Awoken Beast is allergic to spam, so please don't feed him your spam. He received a heavy helping of spam in the past and he got very sick, which resulted in "The Beast" going into hibernation for a brief period of time. He needed time to recuperate to get the spam completely out of his system. We are glad to announce that he made a full recovery, but he needs your handouts to keep him healthy and well.

What should we feed The Beast?

Pretty much anything that relates to our discussion forum. The Beast is an omnivore, meaning he eats both meat products and vegetation. He likes food that is made from wholesale and drop ship bi-products. We've trained the beast to use proper educate and manners while he eats. The Beast is actually quite friendly, because any healthy handouts you feed him, he will share with all his friends that visit him.

Please stop by Drop Ship Forums and become a member for free. Meet The Beast and don't be afraid to feed him. The Beast is also looking for a couple caretakers who will watch over him to make sure he is on a healthy and steady diet. If you think you can help and would like to join our team of caretakers, then let us know before dinner tonight.
